

THE DAILY STAR

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

Probably fair the next twenty-four hours and somewhat warmer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The backwater of the Ohio reached Spring Grove Cemetery yesterday.

LONGVIEW ASYLUM contains two hundred and ninety-eight male, and two hundred and ninety-nine female inmates.

FRANK A. BURN, correspondent of the New York Herald, is in the city, looking up the Ohio canvass. He is stopping at Hotel.

R. H. WILLIAMS, Manager of the Merchants Dispatch and Fast Freight Line, and E. W. Woodward, General Superintendent and acting President of the I. & St. L. R. R., are registered at the Burnett House.

A CALL has been made upon all citizens and Republicans of the Twenty-third ward, who are opposed to inflation, to meet at 8 o'clock this evening at Hubert's Hall, on Western avenue, south of York.

THE fines and costs recorded by Police Court Clerk John R. Bender, as collected in the Police Court during the month of July, amount in city cases to $1,444 50, and in State cases to $1,192 30, making a total of $2,637 30.

THE Secretary of the Board of Park Commissioners was yesterday directed to prepare a statement, and recommend to the Finance Committee the adoption of an ordinance to appropriate $4,000 for the maintenance of the Davidson Fountain, and for next year's expenses.

THERE is a magnificent cake at the Gift Engine-house, which is to be raffled off for the benefit of Theodore Sigismund and A. J. Tighe, who were wounded at the late fire. This cake was originally donated to the Five, and is now raffled, netted two hundred dollars, and is now for the second time offered by Secretary Kelly, its generous owner.

A SNEAK THIEF last evening stole a box of cigars from Joe Bates' saloon, on Vine street, near Fifth, and ran. He was followed by Officers Mitchell and Gussman, and in an alley between Vine and Walnut dropped the cigars and his hat. The thief was pursued to Sycamore street, where he dodged into an alley and escaped.

THE Supreme Court yesterday granted a writ of error in the case of Lizzie Snyder, who, about two months ago, was convicted in the Police Court of harboring a lewd woman at 108 Elm street and fined $25 and costs. Her four boarders were each fined $5 and costs. The application for the writ of error had been taken to the Court of Common Pleas by J. O. Campbell, Esq., and refused.

CONOR MARY this morning held an inquest on the body of Mary Mullen, who died very suddenly about 6 o'clock this morning, at her residence, No. 50 Carr street. The jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease. The deceased is an old lady about 70 years of age, and has complained of severe pains in the limbs and above her heart, for several years. She leaves no children.

THE following allowances have been made by the Directors of the County Infirmary, upon the bills rendered by the Township Trustees, for the temporary relief of the poor: Columbia township, $21 50; Harrison township, $57 43; Green township, $74 75; Anderson township, $76 80; Symmes township, $90 00; Colerain township, $103 80; Crosby township, $33 81; Millersburg township, $187 48. Total, $693 92.

JOSEPH PETERS, a carpenter, twenty-eight years old, living at No. 98 Hamilton st., has been missing from his home since Monday. He bade his wife good-bye, saying that if he did not return she might know what had become of him. Yesterday it was learned that the clothes found on the river bank above Newport were his, one of the pockets containing a farewell letter to his wife. The supposition is that he has committed suicide.

THE town of New Baltimore, in Crosby township, is reported under water and considerable damage being done. The stream is laden with logs, portions of fences and parts of log houses from above. Ratliff and Wabitz's flour mills are inundated and business stopped. A farmer by the name of Jack Schrader was surrounded on Sunday night, and he was compelled to take his wife and move her in a skiff to a place of safety. She was in bad health, and the shock to her system will probably cause her death. She now lies in a critical situation. Schrader lost all his valuable property, and succeeded in saving nothing but his family.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued since our last report:

J. Mettler and Catherine Krammer, M. H. Johnson and Marie Ball, J. Korkowsky and Francis Bodny, Frank Davidson and Fannie Eckert, William Jones and Gertrude Dorrel, William Schmide and Mary Finkle, J. C. Riker and Mary S. Bigham, George Grace and Alice Stout.

That $300,000 Overdue—The Mayor Will Not Sign It.

The $300,000 Water-works ordinance, which was, after so long a delay and under such unfavorable circumstances, passed by the Board of Aldermen at its last session, seems likely to meet with a cool reception at the hands of his Honor, Mayor Johnson, should it pass the other Board and reach him.

In a conversation with a STAR reporter yesterday regarding the ordinance and the mayor, the Mayor expressed himself as already opposed to certain of its features, and said that unless important changes were made in its provisions and terms, he should feel it his duty to refuse to sign it should it reach him.

AMUSEMENTS.

Haverly's Minstrels delighted another large and intelligent audience last night at Wood's. The great feature of the evening being Milt Barlow's "Mary had a Little Lamb." This has been so often attempted, both by amateurs and professionals, that the success of its reproduction might be doubted in other hands than Barlow's, but since the time that M. Barlow first gave his amusing version of this same little poem to our public, we have never seen Mr. Barlow's equal in his recital.

The audience was convulsed from his first rising until his final exit, amidst a storm of tears. Matinee this afternoon.

RAMON'S MINSTRELS.—This rowdy troupe will make their first bow at a Cincinnati audience, this season, at the Grand Opera, commencing Monday, August 5th. Among the notables in this company are Billy Emerson, the great city attraction and Little Mack. Their agent, Mr. G. H. Mack, is registered at the Burnett.

Opening Day of the Exposition.

The committee on opening exercises of the Exposition held an informal meeting yesterday afternoon, three of the Board only being present, Messrs. E. Pendleton, G. G. Hooker and G. G. Henderson. The object of the meeting was to ascertain the number of societies, trade unions and manufacturing companies that would participate at the opening.

The day for opening is set for the 8th of September, when the committee announced their intention of trying to procure a general holiday and suspension of business, so that all societies and workmen's associations might join in the procession, and afterward inspect the things in and around Exposition Hall. They, the committee, propose to present to each man in the procession a complimentary ticket.

The names of the following, who have expressed a willingness to join in the opening ceremonies, were presented to the committee by their respective representatives who were present:

Iron Molders' Union No. 4, numbering 150 men, represented by H. J. Walls. Bohemian Society, 70 men, represented by F. Schulz.

Turner Society, 300 men, represented by Colonel Joseph French. Mutual Benefit Society, 100 men, represented by H. Constant.

Frederick Union O. N. G., represented by Colonel Robinson. Hall's Sale and Lock Company, 300 men. Mitchell & Rammeleberg Furniture Company, 400 men.

After the reading of the above names the committee adjourned to meet the delegates from the various societies again on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at Exposition Hall.

Base-Ball.

The game between the Buckeyes, of Columbus, and the Amateurs, of this city, resulted in favor of the former by a score of 7 to 3. The following is the score by innings:

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Buckeyes..... 0 1 0 0 3 0 0 0 7
Amateurs..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3

A very creditable game of ball was played between the Covington Stars and the Amateurs Club, of this city. The Stars were very near giving their opponents a clean whitewash, but in the ninth inning the Amateurs rallied, securing three runs. Score by innings:

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Amateurs..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 3

A very interesting and somewhat exciting game of base-ball was played at Linwood between the Newtown Club and the Linwoods. The following is the score:

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

The new Cincinnati Nine played a practice game yesterday on the Ludlow grounds. Most of the nine showed up well, but a few seem a little weak, though all, however, possess some good points.

The Reds will play the White Stockings, of Chicago, Monday, August 19th, when a large attendance and exciting game is expected.

The Ludlows have been given a back seat in St. Louis, the Red Stockings, of that city, beating them yesterday by a score of 8 to 6.

Any of our local clubs wishing to try the strength and skill of the Hoosier boys of Indiana, can hear something to their advantage by addressing H. Walker, Secretary of Live Oak B. B. C., Aurora, Indiana.

Awards of Contracts for Furnishing Drugs to Out-door Poor.

The members of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon opened bids for supplying the out-door poor with drugs.

The following awards were made:

First ward—R. M. Hoffman, Columbia, 41 per cent. off old price list.

Third ward—Rendick Brothers, 37 per cent. off.

Fourth ward—T. Wetterstrand, 33 1/3 per cent. off, and 3 per cent. off for prompt cash.

Eighth ward—Dr. D. D. Bramble, 35 per cent. off, and 3 per cent. off for prompt cash.

Eleventh ward—Herman Beckel, 35 per cent. off.

Twelfth ward—J. G. Murphy, 35 per cent. off.

Fourteenth ward—Geo. Eger, 33 1/3 per cent. off and 5 per cent. off for prompt cash.

Sixteenth ward—J. M. Ratcliff, 35 1/2 per cent. off.

Twenty-fourth ward—Theo. Bange, Fairmount, 35 per cent. off.

Twenty-fourth ward—First Precinct—F. Diehl & Bro., 33 1/3 per cent. off for all drugs, except quinine and morphia, which are 30 per cent. off.

Twenty-fifth Ward—There were two bidders in Cumminsville, but they declined to go below the price list, and the contract for this ward was awarded to F. Diehl & Bro., at their bid for Twenty-fourth ward.

OUR THEATERS.

What They are Doing and What They Will Do.

A STAR reporter passing down Longworth street the other day, noticed the back door of the Grand Opera-house standing ajar. It suggested an idea. Why not drop in and see what was going on here? And as the public are generally interested in such matters, let them know a little in advance what they were to be treated to in the way of a theatrical dish the coming season. Everything here was in apple-pie order. The stage newly scrubbed and waxed, the scenes pushed back and nicely arranged in their respective grooves, a touch of paint here, a little gilding there, everything snug and comfortable, waiting the opening on the 6th of September next. "The School for Scandal," Sheridan's most successful comedy, inaugurates the season at this house, which is intended to exhibit the entire strength of Manager Miles' new company, at the head of which stand such names as those of Frank Roche, Mose Fisk and Miss Gussie DeForrest.

The play is to be mounted in superb style—a new scenery from the company of Mr. DeWitt Watson and his clever assistant, Harry LeVoy; new properties, arranged by Mr. George Booth, the most genial of property men, and every accessory of a well regulated theater will combine to make this play one of the events of the season.

Mr. Miles has used every precaution in the selection of his company, sparing neither pains nor expense to make it one of the best in the West.

"The School for Scandal" will be succeeded by "The Rivals," and a succession of standard plays that can not fail to meet the approval of our most whimsical theater goers.

Up among the files of this house, in the scene-painter's loft, we found Mr. Waugh, the acknowledged head of the scenic profession in the West, busily engaged upon a new drop curtain intended for the Grand Central, a costly little theater comedy, under the management of Mr. Joseph Gulick, formerly of the National, that will throw open its doors to the public on the 18th of August.

The Grand Central, which was visited later in the day, is yet in an unfinished state, but if everything corresponds to the scenic work, a "grand" success is predicted.

From the Grand Opera-house, as the idea had presented itself of visiting all the theaters, the reporter crossed over to Wood's. This is one of our old-time theaters, as far as the architectural beauties and conveniences are concerned, but in point of management and stage equipments it is fully up to every modern requirement. Messrs. Macaulay and Havlin being two of the most wide-awake men to the demands of the public that will be found in the profession, either here or elsewhere. Mr. Macaulay is now in New York completing his company, prominent among which will be the old favorite, John Marble, comedian; Fulton Russell, leading man, and Miss Laura Phillips, juvenile lady.

This house is to be newly painted, upholstered and refitted in every particular, promising to make it this season, as heretofore, one of the first theaters in the land.

The scenic department at this house will be in the hands of Charles Blackburn and H. C. Tryon, both men of eminent ability. The season here opens on the 30th of August.

Last in our course came the National—the old, time-honored National—where Forrest awoke the echoes with the ravings of Lear; where Booth the elder gave us a Richard that died with him, and Cushman and Meg Merrilies lived one and the same.

Where Forrest once trod in all the majesty of the royal purple, a big-dancer gives us a breakdown—but the breakdown is done well. Where Booth lay in the agonies of a dying Richard, the clown throws us a flip-flop—but the flip-flop is done well—in fact everything is done well—making this place one of the best variety theaters outside of New York city.

This is a house that has changed from cellar to garret, and under the management of Mr. Robinson, who contributed so materially to its success last season, it bids fair to repeat the same success this coming season, which begins on the 23rd inst.

A PRIVATE meeting of the Council Committee, for investigation of the Waterworks, was held yesterday, and made considerable progress in the proposed report. The work of the committee has not yet been completed, but will probably be finished by Saturday, and then it will be given to counsel, and then to the public.

The River.

PITTSBURGH AUG. 4.—The river is falling today, with 30 feet 6 inches in the channel by the river marks.

Court Cuttings.

The jury in the case of Ingham Bros. vs. G. Lindeman were unable to agree and were discharged.

The will of Ganzmueller was admitted to probate. Martha Ganzmueller was appointed executrix. Real estate, $1,500.

Frederick Flick brought an action in replevin against William Sanders and others in the Common Pleas Court yesterday. Plaintiff rented certain office furniture to Dr. J. H. Brose at a monthly rent. Dr. Brose sold the furniture to William Sanders, who refused to return it to plaintiff. There was no defense to the action. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $37 50.

Miles De Haven has filed a suit against William C. Whitney to recover $5,000 for twenty-three weeks' rent of privilege for a side show and transportation with the Great Chicago Show. The contract is alleged to have been made in Bloomington, Ill., May, 1873. The defendant denied any such contract, and claimed that for a $1,500 loan the plaintiffs gave him the privilege of a side show and to furnish him transportation. He asks, therefore, judgment for $380 87.

In the case of C. H. Townsend against C. Diehl a verdict for $254 was returned for defendant.

The following suits were entered yesterday in the Common Pleas:

Amel Briley vs. F. Hane & Co. et al. Ex parte Edward Andrews.

Ex parte Alex. Stevens.

John Gates & Co. vs. Wm. C. Frick et al.

A. C. Clark yesterday submitted a suit before Judge Avery against J. F. Lake and others to recover $400 due from twenty-three weeks' rent of privilege for a side show and transportation with the Great Chicago Show. The contract is alleged to have been made in Bloomington, Ill., May, 1873. The defendant denied any such contract, and claimed that for a $1,500 loan the plaintiffs gave him the privilege of a side show and to furnish him transportation. He asks, therefore, judgment for $380 87.
